EVERYONE has rights in the United States, regardless of immigration status.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS: ENCOUNTERS WITH ICE

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REMAIN SILENT

- You do not have to answer questions about immigration status, place of birth, or criminal history.
- Say, "I am exercising my right to remain silent."
- Do not lie or present false documents.
- During a traffic stop by police, you must provide your name and address.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REFUSE ENTRY WITHOUT A JUDICIAL WARRANT

- Do not open the door.
- Ask ICE to show the warrant through a window or slide it through the door.
- ICE cannot enter your home without a warrant signed by a judge.
- An ICE administrative warrant (Forms 1-200 or 1- 2051) is not enough.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REFUSE A SEARCH

- ICE cannot search your person, belongings, home, or car without a judicial warrant, your consent, or probable cause.
- Say, "I do not consent to a search."

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO DUE PROCESS

- You have the right to a hearing before deportation, to speak with a lawyer (not court-appointed), and to present evidence and call witnesses.
- Do not sign anything ICE gives you without legal advice.

BYSTANDERS HAVE RIGHTS, TOO

- You have the right to record ICE and law enforcement in public spaces.
- Document badge numbers, names, and witness contact info.
- Do not interfere with arrests.

KNOW WHAT TO CARRY

- Carry a RED CARD at all times.
- Carry an emergency contact card.
- Carry proof of residence in the US for two or more years to avoid expedited removal.
- Consult an attorney about safe documents to carry.
